

Are You Worried About Having Enough Money to Retire On?

There's nothing scarier than imagining a retirement with barely enough to live on. No opportunities to take vacations and no chance to enjoy the luxuries you've been working for all your life.

Everyone needs financial security for their future. But certain investments, like stocks or currency trading are unpredictable and can plummet at a moment's notice.

The Consistent Growth of Real Estate Builds Dependable Wealth

At Stecia Properties, we can help you create the kind of secure, long term wealth you're looking for. We are a real estate investment company that has been investing in residential real estate in Edmonton, Alberta for three years, using proven systems to reduce risk. To date, our investors have received returns on their investments of over 25%.

Wealthy people have known for years that investing in real estate is one of best wealth creation methods available. In fact, as famous self-improvement guru Dale Carnegie is often quoted as saying “Over 90% of all millionaires become so through owning real estate”.

The Alberta Real Estate Market is Booming!

Alberta is becoming one of the most desired locations in Canada to live in. But unlike BC, it is still affordable! With the second largest oil sands deposits in the world, creating high paying energy industry jobs and a forecasted population growth of 9.2%, expected by 2012, there will be a huge demand for property. This will cause decreased vacancy rates and property values to soar.

Stephen Steckler, “The BC Guy Buying up Edmonton” has extensive knowledge of the Alberta real estate market. And with the experience he's gained through investing personally, you can trust his guidance in making the wisest investment choices possible.

The team of professionals working with Stecia Properties are experts in their fields of real estate law, property management and accounting. Together they bring more than 30 years of expertise.

In just a short period, Stecia Properties has already amassed a real estate portfolio worth $1.5 million

Let us help you maximize your investment dollars, so you can look forward to a wealthy and enjoyable retirement. Contact us today to arrange for a free consultation.